

GORE MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

By Canadians For Canadians Since 1839

June 8, 2011

Canada Post has declared a rotating strike by the Canadian Union of Postal Workers. Gore Mutual wants you to understand the impact the postal strike may have on your insurance policy. Please see below for frequently asked questions:

How do I access my policy information?

Your insurance broker can access your insurance information. Please contact them for details.

I've misplaced my pink slip. How do I get another one?

Your insurance broker can provide you with a replacement pink slip.

How will I receive my claim cheque?

Please contact your insurance broker concerning any claim cheques. They will work with your claims adjuster to arrange for you to receive your funds.

Can I mail a payment cheque to Gore Mutual?

Cheques can be delivered to your broker office. Your broker will send your cheque to Gore Mutual by courier.

For more information about the postal strike, please visit www.cupw.ca.

For more information regarding how the strike affects you and your insurance information, please contact your insurance broker.