

June 19 operations update: Community Day and service expectations

Many Gore Mutual employees will be volunteering, with minimal impact to service

On June 19, Gore Mutual will be observing Community Day, with many of our employees out of the office volunteering as part of our commitment to Insurance that does good.

Our teams will remain fully operational to support brokers and customers, although you may notice slightly longer wait times at points throughout the day.

We appreciate your understanding and continued partnership.