

Unica policy conversion: a quick overview for Gore brokers

You may begin to hear more about Unica policy conversion as part of the Gore–Unica integration.

For most Gore brokers, there is no impact to your day-to-day Gore business today. If you also write Unica policies, changes will apply to that portion of your business.

Unica policies will transition over time at renewal, moving from Opus into Guidewire as part of aligning to a single system.

We've developed a set of FAQs that walk through what this means in more detail, including:

- What's changing and when
- What to expect if you write with both Gore and Unica
- How the transition will work over time
